

Soviet Seeks No Territory In Rumania

By ERNEST AGNEW
LONDON, April 3 (AP)—Soviet foreign commissar Vyacheslav Molotov's announcement last night that the Red army invasion of Rumania was not aimed at seizing "any part of Rumanian territory" was warmly welcomed today in official London circles.

Molotov described this first Russian penetration of Axis territory as being dictated by military necessity and declared further the action was not aimed at the integrity of the existing social order in Rumania.⁶ His statement was broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded in London by the Soviet monitor.

MAY HASTEN EXIT

Belief was expressed here that Soviet renunciation of Rumanian territory would go a long way to hasten Rumania's exit from the war, allay the fears of war-weary peoples for Axis-captive Hungary and

Clearly indicating, however, that Russia intends to keep northern Bucovina and Bessarabia, which Rumania ceded to Russia in 1940, the foreign commissar declared:

"The Red army, as a result of its successful advance, has reached the river put. This means the beginning of full restoration of the Soviet frontier created in 1940 as the result of an agreement between the Soviet Union and Rumania, which was broken in 1941 by the Rumanian government in alliance with Hitlerite Germany."

United States May Keep Captured Marshall Isles

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—When Marines hoisted the flag of the United States over the Marshall Islands, they also raised a question of policy which may take some American soul-searching.

Allies Expected To Reject Plan For French Rule

By RYLAND MORIN

ALGERS, April 3.—(AP)—The French Committee of National Liberation disclosed Saturday it has drafted a complete blueprint providing for immediate administration of France by French military and civil officials.

The Allies, who will determine the form of government for the liberated areas, are not expected to approve the French plans. Under the French plan problems of administration arising in France in the wake of the invasion forces would be handled by delegates appointed by the committee in particular areas until such time as the committee can assume direct control.

ANSWER F. D. R.

The plan was approved more than two weeks ago, it is understood. They thus pre-empted and in effect answer President Roosevelt's statement that supreme authority behind the lines in France after the invasion starts would be invested in Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Members of the Association of French Liberation of Nov. 8 adopted a resolution asking President Roosevelt to approve the Clark-Darlan agreement as infringing upon French sovereignty and to recognize more fully the French Committee of National Liberation.

The agreement referred to was made in November, 1942, between the late Admiral Jean Darlan and Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark. It formalized the presence of Allied troops in North Africa. The French subsequently demanded a new agreement, contending the original one between occupational forces and the occupied no longer met the situation.

LONDON, April 3.—(CP)—The News Chronicle said today that "there is an unworkable case for Allied recognition of the French Committee of National Liberation as a provisional civil authority after the landing in France."

"A great many people of this country will share the indignation expressed in the House of Commons at the anti-Atlantic assembly at the anti-Atlantic American proposal to leave such decisions to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Youth Delights in Walking CLOSE TO THE EDGE OF THINGS

Canada's young men and women face up to the risks of life and ask no safeguard against failure. Youth simply does not intend to fail.

What they do expect is the right to organize their own lives in their own way; the freedom to grasp opportunity and make the most of it on their own initiative; the privilege of voluntary cooperation with others. These are the things that open the treasures of life to them.

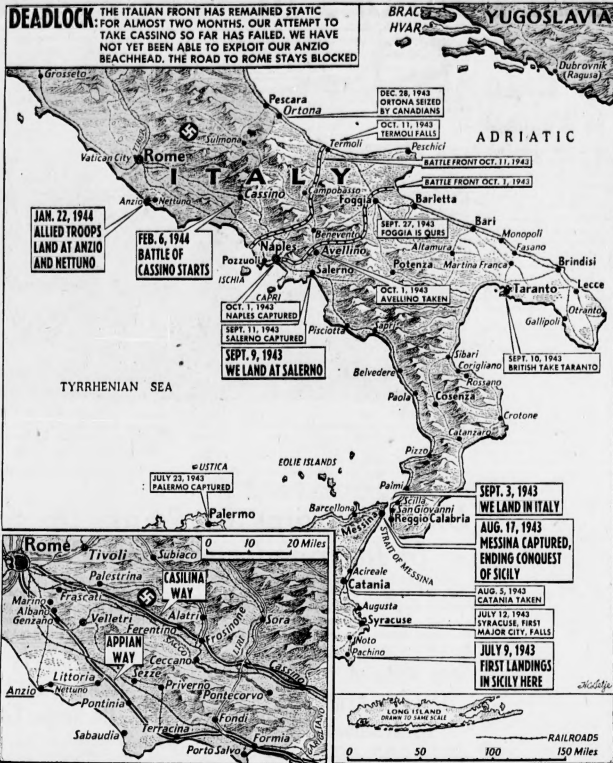

It's adventurous living—but they would not have it otherwise. Youth asks for opportunity. Not with bravado or bluster, but with courageous confidence, they set out on life's journey.

During its 89 years of public service, this Bank has been privileged to lend the helping hand of friendly counsel and timely support to untold thousands of such young Canadians. This kind of voluntary team-play is essential to keep opportunity free, encourage self-reliance and urge on to new achievement every enterprising man and woman. This is what has built and can continue to build a better Canada for all.

Paper Doubts Value Of Surrender Plan

LONDON, April 3.—(CP)—The Observer said yesterday "it is very doubtful" if the demand for unconditional surrender represented the right approach to Germany.

The Sunday newspaper in an editorial page article noted that while Russia endorsed the Allied unconditional surrender demand the Russians have qualified it by limiting its application to "Hitler's Germany"—to the Nazis themselves.

Unconditional surrender in European wars usually has meant destruction of a sovereignty or annexation of a state. The Observer said, adding "it is absolutely certain we have no interest in imposing conditions on Germany which we will have to enforce by armies of occupation and subjugation during the long decades after this war."

The newspaper said the unconditional surrender demand aroused a "Dunkirk spirit."

Report Soviet Asks For Lend-Lease Aid 3 Years After War

LONDON, April 3.—(CP)—The Sunday Observer said yesterday that Russia has asked the United States to continue lend-lease aid for three years after the close of the war in Europe.

Washington's reply, the newspaper continued, was reported to be a request for a promise that Russia will co-operate fully with the western powers in the waging of the war against Japan.

"On this question, however, Moscow has been reluctant to make any commitment," the Sunday Observer said.

"The result is that Washington has deferred giving a definite reply to the Russian lend-lease request and now is considering what policy to adopt should the Russians remain unwilling to pledge support in the war against Japan."

Labor Recruiting In Newfoundland Proves Failure
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 3.—(CP)—A representative of the Canadian labor department has made an unsuccessful attempt to recruit labor for the Dominion in Newfoundland. It was learned Saturday as plans went ahead for enrolling about 1,500 Newfoundland laborers for farm work in the United States.

The Newfoundlanders will go to dairy farms in New York and Pennsylvania.

Wages will range from $100 to $115 a month, with the recruited first receiving two or three weeks' training in dairy farming methods in an agricultural college before the state to which they are assigned.

Lutheran Minister Serves U.S. Forces In Central Canada

WINNIPEG, April 3.—(CP)—First and only chaplain to the United States Army forces in the central Canada command is a Lutheran pastor from Brooklyn, Lieut. Charles A. Davis.

Lieut. Davis' parish covers more than 3,000 miles and takes in all U.S. Army bases in Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. His duties often keep him on the road five weeks in eight.

He travels by train, plane, jeep and when his luck runs out by dog sled and tractor team. He describes himself as a "circuit preacher."

Although he is unable to hold services for soldiers to Roman Catholic or Jewish faith, he is able to arrange special services for them.

The Journal, referring to articles in two soldier papers published overseas, also had this to say:

"Since our army's 'Stars and Stripes' and the Canadian 'Maple Leaf' were permitted to denounce the latest Cassino assault as a failure, a denunciation which could have been directed only at the higher command, it would seem that to end criminalization and re-education the responsible officer should be required to collaborate more effectively or be succeeded."

Lack of Rainfall Causes Shortage Of Water in U.K.

LONDON, April 3.—(CP)—Due to lack of rainfall parts of England are faced with a water famine, threatening the country's milk supply and raising the question of water rationing in the big cities of the south, including London.

With reservoirs coming close to dry, villagers carting water for miles for cooking purposes and firemen pumping thousands of gallons from hydrants to dairy farms. Londoners are warned by the Ministry of Health that unless they economize in water usage it is possible in the near future that certain reactions may be imposed.

Shipment of Arms To Russia by U.S. Ahead of Schedule

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Shipments of munitions to Russia are "well ahead" of the monthly schedules set in the third protocol signed with the Soviet for the year ending June 30, the United States government announced last night.

More than 1,000,000 tons of arms and war supplies were shipped under lend-lease in January and February, reported Leo T. Crowley, director of the foreign economic administration. This is 50 per cent greater than the same two months of 1943, and five times as much as was sent in the same period of 1942.

Missionary, Family Return Here After Service, Suffering in China

By MADELINE LEVASON
After years of terror, hunger and suffering in war-torn China, the Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Paulson have arrived home in Canada with their three small children. Their pleasure at their homecoming, however, is marred by the knowledge that their 10-year-old son, Philip, is a prisoner of the Japanese.
Mr. and Mrs. Paulson, who spent 30 years at the China Inland mission in Shanghai, have returned to Canada, where they had been for several years. They witnessed 20 enemy bombings, saw their mission and their home destroyed, and finally had to flee the country with the advancing Japanese line on their heels. When the yellow men broke through the defence lines in their district they overran a station where their son, Philip, then just six years old, was attending school, and they had to flee the country with no hope of being able to rescue him.
All transportation and communication lines in China are completely disrupted, Mr. Paulson said, and the travelling for these weary feet, in trucks and wagons to reach the nearest airport.
Mr. Paulson is living with his parents at 1015 Jasper Ave. He and his wife have 14 months' furlough in which to rest and recover from their experiences before returning to missionary duties. They hope to return to China after the war.

In the meantime, the effort is being made by the government to have their son released by the Japanese. Mr. Paulson remarked bitterly he was "very surprised to find Japanese people in this country allowed to roam about while a harmless little boy of 10 is being kept in an internment camp."

MATTER OF PRIDE
He spoke of being greatly impressed and very proud of the well organized war effort being made by Canadians. He said inflation and suffering in China was no match for milk, sugar or bacon had been seen.

Police Arrest 23 Persons in Sunday Raids

In two raids Sunday afternoon, four members of the city police mounted squad placed 23 men under arrest, two of whom were charged with keeping gaming houses, and 21 as being "found-ins."
The raids brought the number to six during the past three weeks, while a number of those arrested were said to be among those arrested earlier for a similar offence.
KEEPERS CHARGED
Arrested and charged as keepers were: Mrs. Moore and Alex. Alex. proski. The former was one of 12 arrested about 4 p.m. at 1028 97 street, while the latter and 12 others were closed in on about an hour later at 1085 58 street, by Detective Inspector William Smith, assisted by Detectives Edward Kennedy, Volmer A. Taylor and Ernest Foster.
They took into the second premises were affected only after morality men broke through the door, it was stated. More than $100 in cash, tables, chairs and playing cards were seized in the two raids.

One alleged keeper, police stated, pleaded guilty to the charge on the table before him, as officers entered. The latter spotted the movement, however, and had the money brought out again. When counted, it amounted to $100.

PLEADS GUILTY
Pleading guilty to keeping a gaming house, when he appeared before Magistrate Miller K.C. in city court Monday morning, Moore was fined $125 and costs or five months' imprisonment. On two previous occasions he had been convicted as a "found-in" and was remanded by the magistrate.

Poposki pleaded not guilty to the charge of keeping a gaming house, while the 12 alleged "found-ins" remained in their cells. They were imposed on those found in the premises.
Charles B. Hill, who is to be superintendent of child welfare in Alberta, under the new provincial department of child welfare, will receive automatic appointment to the chairmanship of the provincial child welfare commission when his new post is confirmed by order-in-council.

While the commission has not yet been named, the new Child Welfare Act provides that the person who holds the superintendency of child welfare shall be the head of the department.

End Distribution New Ration Book
Now that distribution of ration books has been completed, the new ration books are being distributed to all areas. Numbers of books to be distributed will coincide with the number of postal cards returned in from old books.

Many volunteer workers will be called upon to help with the work and officials stated complete figures will not be available until April 12. Ration officials in all parts of the province reported that the distribution was smoother than any previous occasion.
Mrs. E. E. Hyde, convenor of the Citizens' Volunteer Bureau in Edmonton, is supplying some help to C. J. Ingram, secretary of the local ration board, to complete the work.

Court of Revision Hears 18 Appeals
Eighteen of the 26 appeals brought against 1944 property and buildings assessments were heard at the Court of Revision at the City Block. The commissioners are sitting at the court.

Only two changes were made in 18 cases. The assessments on a building from $1,000 to $1,040, and the other reduced a building assessment from $1,005 to $1,040. The assessments in the 16 other cases were not changed.

Dog Is Found
A St. Bernard dog, valued by the owner at $500, was found on Kingsway near 106 street last Saturday, according to city police. The dog had been run over and was first thought to be dead. Apparently it had not been seriously hurt and it was taken to a veterinarian for attention.

Say Dominion-Provincial Governments Considering Various Phases of Plan

The Canadian Medical Procurement and Assignment Board at Ottawa has been asked by the Alberta government for further information regarding a plan to have army doctors serve rural areas in Alberta that are now without medical practitioners. Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, acting premier and minister of health and public welfare, stated here Monday.

Chairman
The minister was commenting on an announcement made in the Saskatchewan legislature Saturday that army doctors are soon to be made available for service in rural areas of that province. ("Saskatchewan must pass legislation enabling municipalities to pay expenses of such a doctor's equipment and travelling costs.")

Dr. Cross said that in Alberta, authority is already contained in the Medical Districts Act under which municipalities may make provision for medical services for residents. No amending legislation would be required to take advantage of such a plan as proposed.

WRITE OTTAWA
"A communication has been sent to the chairman of the procurement and assignment board asking for information regarding the agreement he has entered into with the Dominion government," the minister said. "We have also asked for information regarding the agreement necessary between the province and the municipality."

"On receipt of this information, we expect to arrange a conference with the board and the members of the advisory medical procurement and assignment committee in Ottawa."

The Inquiring Reporter
THE QUESTION
Do you think selective service should be retained for dealing with employment problems after the war?

THE ANSWERS
ALBERT LOU, administrative clerk: Yes, I think selective service in some form should be retained in the post-war years. With the experience gained during the war it should be possible to plan for the future so that unemployment could be dealt with through wholesale occupational transfers.

MARK SALTE: I'm desirous of an individual to fulfill completely and absolute abandonment of selective service as soon as the war is over. I think people will be pretty sick of so much regulation when peace comes again.

J. GREGORY, student: Why shouldn't a system of selection of the right people for the right jobs be carried out in times of peace? Personally I believe the country is moving into a state where the same care will be necessary for peacetime job selection as prevailed in the armed forces at the present time.

City Singer Says Edmontonians Prove Selves To Be "Grand Lot"

Edmontonians are a "grand lot!" This testimonial comes from one of their number who, at present is in far-away parts, but who has had a striking demonstration of their "grandness." The Edmontonian who thus described her fellow-residents, is Miss Bernice McBeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McBeth of 1130 85 avenue. Miss McBeth was a participant recently in a nation-wide radio competition, and to compete she journeyed to Toronto.

around Barrymore and then impulsively kissing him. "You have no idea," she said, "what it means to me to lay my eyes so perfectly on an artist."

On the afternoon of June 4, 1932, a son was born to Charles and Jack. The expectant father had been pale as hell for some time. He swore that if a son be given him, he would quit drinking.

When the doctor called out, "It's a boy!" Jack gave a loud cry. As he touched the child, Barrymore said, "Thank God! A son!" He observed in the boy's black hair and full chest a resemblance to his own father.

Barrymore gave Hotchner a revolver and told him to stand guard in the hospital corridor. "Don't let anyone near my son," he said. "I'm going out for a few minutes."

Simple, Cheap Method

Develop Process for Making Coal, Gasoline from Plants Announced

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

CLEVELAND, April 3.—(AP)—Announcement of a process for making gasoline and oil from farm, forest and sea plants, needed to supply the world's needs, simpler and cheaper than other synthetic methods, was released here last night by the American Chemical Society.

The process telescopes into a few hours, with heat and pressure, what nature took millions of years to do in forming coal and oil. It was perfected by Dr. E. C. Hornum, professor at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh.

MADE FROM SUGAR—Dr. Hornum said, for example, that sugar cane, planted on 21 per cent of the available crop lands in the United States, could produce as much gasoline as the 22,000,000 cars in the country used in 1940.

The process is not limited to sugar. It will make coal or gasoline from sorghum, sweet potatoes, cornstarch and many other farm crops, from grass, leaves, Irish moss, seaweed, algae and seaweed.

Internationally, he said, the process means there need be no famine nations in coal and oil, provided there is land enough for them to grow carbohydrates.

PLAN IN BRITAIN

Getting oil from carbohydrates, he added, is believed to be a major factor in British post-war economic policy. These plans are for a carbohydrate oil empire in the tropics.

Trapped Japanese Face Certain Death

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—A hopeless future—death by bombardment, starvation and disease—approximately 100,000 Japanese soldiers in the Philippines, the United States war department said yesterday.

"Continuous aerial and artillery bombardment in enemy installations in a softening-up process, seizure of enemy points by ground forces, and a naval blockade which, coupled with aerial attack, has paralyzed Japanese communication lines" now are the lot of the enemy in the Philippines, the war department said.

Allied forces are inflicting casualties at a rate as high as 30 to 1, the department added, while the sea and air blockade has been drawn so tight that "nine out of 10 enemy vessels that attempt to bring supplies are destroyed" and 90 per cent of the barges that attempt to blockade running are sunk.

Sforza Not Likely To Accept Post In Badoglio Govt.

NAPLES, April 3.—(AP)—Count Carlo Sforza, one of Italy's foremost political figures, indicated yesterday he would refuse an offer of a post in the Badoglio government which King Victor Emmanuel retained, regardless of a Communist proposal that all parties collaborate in making a new government with authority as well as power.

The Communist proposal, announced Saturday by party chief Palmiro Togliatti, threatened a split in the six-party national liberation committee, with the action and local parties refusing to deal with the government headed by Marshal Benito Mussolini, particularly so long as the king refused to abdicate.

Negotiations for leaders of the three largest parties—the Communists, Socialists, and Christian Democracy—to enter the Badoglio government in a prospective shakeup were expected to start this week.

Canadian Airmen Based in Ceylon Promised Action

COLOMBO, April 3.—(AP)—R.C.A.F. units stationed in Ceylon have been promised action by the British Commonwealth Air Force Marshal Sir Richard Peirse that "in the not too far distant future you will have a great deal to do" because the enemy has been increasing his activities in the Indian Ocean and Bay of Bengal.

"The air officer commanding Allied air forces in the southeast Asia command told Canadian airmen on a recent visit, 'I do not say I am not sure you have not engaged the enemy's aircraft.' It was 'the fault of the enemy who doesn't co-operate.'"

During the visit he presented an R.C.A.F. Catalina squadron a new crest. He said he was "very conscious of what you fellows have done in building up this station."

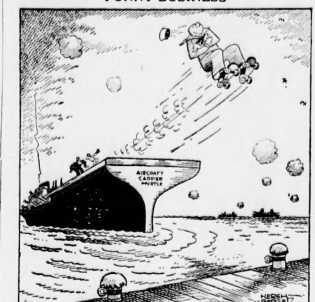

President-Elect

CHICAGO, April 3.—(AP)—Dr. David P. Barn, New York City, professor of medicine at Cornell university, was named president-elect of the American College of Physicians Saturday. Five new members were elected to the 15-man board of regents. They include Dr. George F. Strong, Vancouver, B.C.

M.P.'s Statement Is Egg Production Soared in Canada

OTTAWA, April 3.—(CP)—Canada's egg production is reaching a new peak every week, with purchases of egg powder for export to Britain nearly three times that of a year ago, the special products board announced last night.

From the end of December when it resumed egg purchases until March 31, the special products board has bought 1,451 cartons of eggs, compared with 563 in the corresponding period of 1943. March purchases totalled 375 cartons, compared with 203 in March, 1943.

By provinces of origin, 1944 cartons purchased to date are as follows: 1943 comparative figures in brackets: British Columbia, 161 (three); Alberta, 197 (171); Saskatchewan, 212 (168); Manitoba, 182 (38); Ontario, 68 (155); Quebec, 98 (28); and Prince Edward Island, one (0).
